 Columbus Public Schools

Educators at The Ohio State University recognize that factors contributing to children reaching higher levels of achievement in literacy are:

- early success for students in reading & writing.
- having books in the home.
- parent involvement in a child's learning.

Join us to learn how teachers, schools, & districts have worked together with The Ohio State University & KEEP BOOKS to increase literacy achievement by teaching reading with books children then take home to keep.

April 27th, 2010 4pm-7pm
807 Kinnear Road, Columbus, OH

Fee: $160 (includes a Full set of KEEP BOOKS [with shipping if needed] & materials)

- Topics include:
- Research-based evidence for reading at home
 - Successful formats for summer reading
 - Choosing & introducing books to young readers
 - Promoting interest & ownership of books at home
 - Extending reading through high interest writing activities
